August 2009 Meeting Club Picnic

Thanks to Ron & Carolyn Gooley for hosting the club picnic. It was a beautiful day, with good food, a chance to get to know each other and spouses, to gather together and talk a little about...

.....woodturning.

Mentoring:

After a little time with Ron in his shop, John Hawkins shares his first try at assembling and turning a segmented bowl.

In My Shop:

Dan Forman made these plywood sleds to anchor large, irregular pieces of wood to allow for accurate and safe cuts on the bandsaw.

Next Meeting:

Russ Fairfield will take his place behind the lathe to demonstrate turning platters and plates.

See you September 3,
Keep turning!

Club Secretary
